MEDIA ADVISORY

Free Admission at Nicholas Conservatory & Gardens Wednesday, January 18, 2012 9 a.m. – 7 p.m.

ROCKFORD, IL – Every month, the Rockford Park District provides a free chance to escape the outdoor elements without even leaving town. On Wednesday, January 18, 2012 the Rockford Park District's new tropical treasure, Nicholas Conservatory & Gardens, 1354 N. 2nd Street, Rockford, is open to the public for FREE from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. The third Wednesday of every month, experience a taste of the tropics for FREE at Nicholas Conservatory & Gardens from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Wednesday Highlights:

- Herbal Teas & Your Health – 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.
Liz Fiorenza, RN and owner of Wind Ridge Herb Farm in Caledonia, will guide you through the world of herbal teas and their health benefits. You will also learn how to make your own herbal teas!
- Shop at Garden Gate Gifts, which offers many unique and one-of-a-kind presents exclusive to NCG

The Rockford Park District often provides free and low fee offerings to area residents. For more information about other free events, call the Rockford Park District at 815-987-8898 or visit www.rockfordparkdistrict.org.
