Rockford Park District Offers “Play by the Day” Camp Options

Rockford, IL – New this year, the Rockford Park District is now offering single-day camp options at its Summer Blast, Nature Quest, and Learn to Play Sports camps this summer. For just $25 per day, parents can register their child ages 5 - 12 for just one day or up to four days of camp. Cost includes before and after care.

“Parents are looking for camps that offer flexibility, including the opportunity to register for less than one full week of camp. Our new ‘Play by the Day’ program provides this flexibility and offers an affordable camp option for parents,” said Community & Recreation Services Manager Laurie Anderson.

For information or to register, visit www.rockfordparkdistrict.org, call 815-987-8800 (TTY, 888-871-6171) or visit either Customer Service location during business hours: Webbs Norman Center, 401 S. Main St. or Carlson Ice Arena, 4150 N. Perryville Rd., Loves Park. Information on support for campers with disabilities is also available from Customer Service.
